SONGS AND BALLADS.

SUNG BY

MISS CATHARINE HAYES.

For Guitar 18 ¾ Cts. nett

For Piano 25 Cts. nett

N° 1	Why do I weep for thee	N° 7
„ 2	Ah! my child, Ah! mon fils	„ 8
„ 3	Come, where the sweet tomb Zephyrs	„ 9
„ 4	O! sing to me	„ 10
		„ 11
		„ 12

COME WHERE SWEET TON'D ZEPHYRS PASS.

Arranged for the Guitar by

F. RASCHE.

ALLEGRO.
Where the rose with woodbine crown'd, decks the fai - ry Come where sweet ton'd zephyrs pass, sigh-ing thro' the bow'rs . . . . . And the songs of birds re - sound hymn-ing to the trees, ... And the flow'-rets in the grass, bending scent the flow'rs . . . . . Come then La - dy fair and bright, far o'er hill and breeze; . . . . Where the sunbeams soft - ly dance, dropping thro' the dell, ... Come a - way with foot - steps light, come where love may shade, ... and the wa - ters brightly dance, murm'ring thro' the dwell . . . . . Come glade . . . . . Oh

where the rose with wood - bine crown'd, decks the fai - ry bow'rs . . . .
come where sweet ton'd zeph - yrs pass sigh - ing thro' the trees . . . .
And the songs of birds re - sound hymn - ing to the flow'rs. Where the
And the flow'- rets in the grass bending scent the breeze. Where the sun beams &c.
sun - beams soft - ly dance, drop - ping thro' the shade, Come,
come, come where the wa - - ters bright - ly dance, mur - muring thro' the glade.